

SOFIDEL AWARDED THE ECOVADIS ESG RATING PLATINUM MEDAL FOR ITS COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABILITY

The tissue paper manufacturing group achieves the highest recognition in the EcoVadis ESG rating, ranking in the top 1% of companies with the highest scores in the global EcoVadis database, confirming its work in the areas of Environment, Labor & Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement.

Porcari (LU), Italy, 22 September 2025 – Sofidel, one of the world's leading manufacturers of paper for hygienic and household use, known in Italy and Europe for its Regina brand, has been awarded the Platinum Medal by EcoVadis – one of the main international ESG rating standards – for its commitment to sustainability.

This is the highest recognition in the EcoVadis rating, placing Sofidel in the top 1% of companies with the highest scores in the global EcoVadis database.

EcoVadis is a global provider of corporate sustainability ratings, with a network of over 150,000 companies assessed worldwide. Its methodology is based on international sustainability standards – including the Global Reporting Initiative, the United Nations Global Compact, and ISO 26000 – and measures company performance in four key areas: Environment, Labor & Human Rights, Ethics, and Sustainable Procurement.

"The EcoVadis Platinum rating is significant. It is one of the most widely used ESG ratings, particularly valued by major retail chains to monitor the sustainability of their suppliers. This achievement attests to the quality of our work in fundamental areas such as risk management, compliance, and the monitoring of the Group's environmental, social, and ethical performance" commented Enzo Ricci, Sofidel Vice President - Marketing & Sales Private Label.

Sofidel is constantly working to minimize its impact on natural capital, facilitate the transition to a low-carbon economy, and create shared value for all its stakeholders.
